THE MESSAGE No. 6.

THE NEW EXPERIMENTS. Separation of Government from Banks. This is a phrase that has been made use of by the was of presentatives are in an apit ? . It is is a ... mat thus Government should not] be allowed to acquire an undue influence by a connection of Banks and by having the control ants. Mr Wise begun the controversy by re-Bemocratic doctrine and Whig doctrine too.

The mornal disposed of Government by many of the season of the control of the cont numerous office, under its control, and the mon. and intimated in practy strong terms; ev at ite disponsivis too great now. It has been mercasing ever since the adoption of the Constitution. It will continue to ingrease as the! if their intention in fact is coverelly to rolarge the influence of Government to give it more offices to- depose of, and to put the people's Money more completely under he control then Editors of conce. both Whigs and Democrate should unite to defeat such a plan. New let us see how it is. When the morey, was deposited in the U. S. Renk the Government had no control over it ACFINE drew it out when it was needed to make payments. They had no control over the power. when the government quarreled with the Bank the money was taken from it and de himself with eighty-siz State Banks. Under that eystem the suffuence of Government has been ingreased, because it enabled them to favor ment Bill. those banks that were friendly to them, and which were hence called the Pet Banks. Still the Governation had no control over the elecrian of the officers of those Banks. It is proposed by the New Experiment, that thirty orforty millions of the public revenue shall be kept by the Collector's and Receivers who are appointed by Government and removable at its pleasure. Ten additional great officers or Reenivers General are to be appointed, with suitable establishments, with clerks and other officers under them, aid all entirely dependent upon terk hand. Mr King has atudied thoroughly Government 'A new set of "Agencies", connected with the Mint pre to be established or the purpose of redeeming the Treasury nores. Each of these agencies must have a number of otheris about it, and all de pendent upon Gov. Ning. M. King the in the long and over Banking, Now is this the way to diminish the influence of Government? Is it by the creation of all these new officers with new salaries wholly an, President is very cautious in speaking of the Report, in the few minutes I have had, prior to number of new officers. It is by examining the appointed by the Government. This is true, State .bet it is an enswer to the objection of making so many new-once. Bouides there is a greatdifference between merely collecting muncy the collector to pay over the money collected to be fired in Salem." every day into the bank, from what it would be Ich thin the how with a how sum collected, all the time in his on a socket.

The President modestly says "I can fruly "way that nothing would be more acceptable sitian the withdrawal from the Executive to "the tade and disbursement of the public "kevenue; not that I would shrink from any tresponsibility cast upon me by the dutice of "organise, but because it is my tiru beliet that England, on the evening of the 18th August "He d - fulnten in in degree promoted by the Peasession of any patronage not actually ne-"cell ty to the performance of these duties."

L'as President admits that the neclulary of his office in in no degree promoted by an increase of patronage. But nevertheless he is willing to "inke the responsibility." And his success be will doubtless be squally willing to take the propertility. It would be a new thing under the sing if the yellould not be. I have never yet heard of read of a Government that was not Hing to take the responsibility of keeping the wit whoney: A Past Farmen.

Popperature. We noticed in the lest numthat we would speak of it in our columns. Some time since, we gave admission to several communications censuring the practice comthat the individuals interested would profit by the admonition which was then administered, and discontinue a traffic which they must have been convinced was an unjust infringement of the rights of the consumer and producer, and a palpable violation of the law of the laud.

But what was then said seems to have passed unheeded. The evil has increased ten-fold and the public demand its redress, We could state innumerable cases of most outrageous acts of Forestalling which have taken place in this City within the lew past weeks. But the practice is so notorious that it would be useless to enumerate individual instances.

The effects of Forestalling the market are obvious. Always acting most unjustly and injuriously upon the packets of the consumer "in of that division of the country, praying there hard times' the Forestaller is the most direct oppressor to which the poor man is subjected. I brough his instrumentality he is comgallood the new general or doubtle tiles amount for his daily provisions than he would in a fair and open market, and this, when the price of all binds of provisions is enormously high, without forestolling interferences, operates with excess ing constitucted on the safety principle, and time " vority ... It is gampyleian ... Har it is gan eruly impossible to find provisions for sale in the hands of any others than those who have purchased them in the market, for the purpose of selling them again to the consumer at an advanced

The prominent individuals engaged in this outrageous and unlawful abuse of the rights of our cilizens, should be selected by our civil authorities, and by such punishment as the law points out and the public voice demands, exposed as an example and a warning to the daily increasing tribe of comparatively innocent offenders. The nuisance has grown to be insufferable. It must be abated.

BLOT AT BALTIMONE .- The Baltimore Transeript of Friday evening, says " bast night between eight and nine o'clock, the inhabitants in the neighborhood of Baltimore and Holliday strects, were disturbed by another riot between two parties who shouted for 'Bull's Eye,' and' New Market,' During the fracas a pistol was discharged in the night of the crowd, which fortunately injured no one. An innocent young man quictly passing along, was beaten by one or the other of the parties in a most cowardly and inhuman manuer."

It will be seen by our report of the markets worth two dollars a bushel, and other qualities and grains are at corresponding high prices. These advanced prices are owing, of course, to a short supply in-the seaboard markets, owing to a partial failure of crops in certain sections of country on the sea board, and to the late long continued dry weather in other sections. which prevented the manufacture of the article into flour, with the naval facility and promptititude, to meet the immediate demand for consumption, after a season of scarcity. CLASSITICATES OF LAUCHTER. - There are by rule. These beings are generally within the precincts of a court, at the heels of some great man, to whose conduct they stiapo their possions as a model. Does his lordship say a bon mot, it is caught up and griffned at in every possible manner, till the powers of grimace expended, his fordship is pleased to change the aubject, and strike a different chord. And it is not astonishing ... Who would refuse to langh for a pension of two hundred a year : Common gratitude demands it. There is, then, your habitual laugher, men who laugh by habit without rhyme or reason. They are general. y stout, pig faced gentlemen, who eat hearty suppers, and parronize free and easys They will meet you with a grin on their countenance Which, where you have said_thick sentences, will resolve itself into a simper, and terminate finally in a stentorian laught. These men may truly he said to go through life laughing, but habit has blunted the finer edge of-their som pathies, and their mirth is but the unmeaning effusion of a weak spuit. Miese persons generally gooff in fits of apoplexy, brought on by excessive laughter on a lun approach. There is then, your discontented cynical laugher, who makes a mask of mirth to conceal the venom of his mind. It is a dead fraud, that ought not to be pardoned. Speak to one of these men w happiness, virtue, &c. he meels you with a sneer, or bottle imp chuckle "talk to him of any felicitous circumstance, he checks you with a sardonic grin that freezes your best intentions. the is a type of the death's head the Egyptiane place at their feet to check exuberant gamery

There is, then, four fashionable simperer, your inward digrater of small lokes and tittle tattle. He never laughs, it is a vulgar habit; the only wonder is, that he eats. People, he will tell you should overcome these vulgar propensities; they are abouilnable. A young man of this class is generally consumptive his lungs have no play, he is always weak and narrow chested, he vegetates till fity, and then goes off, evercoure with a pull of eau-de rose, or milleffeur, he has encountered accidentally from the pocket handkernbicf of a cheese-monger's wife ! Last of all, there in your , cal, honest, good laugher; the man who has a heart to to feel and sympethise with the joys and sorrows of others; who has gone through life au perior to its follies, and has learnt to gather wisdom even from laughter. Such are the men who do honor to society, a ho have learned to be temperate in prespecity, patient in adversity; and who, having learned experience teom years, are coming to drink the cup of life mingled as it is, to enjoy calmly the aweeter portion, and Reptley's Mistellane lary have billed

BANGOR,

THURSDAY: NOVEMBER 30, 1837.

"Why don't you come out on the Alton outrage? Why don't you express yourself more Micoidedly upon the Lovejoy murder?1 Why don't yous touch up " the Abolitionists on the dunging in our earsulmost every hour since the have been assailed by a shower of communica- source countenance and support, tions on the subject no two of which bear the alightest resemblace to each other in sentiment. The subject is one of exceeding delicacy, upon which it is scarcely possible to say any thing at all that would not be offensive to some of our reders, divided and subdivided as they are upon the subject of slavery.

We are not the organ of the Abolitionists, or of their opponents; nor do we take any part in their controversies, Our sheet is devoted to other object. To open our columns to the interminable, and as it seems to us, unprofitable discussion of the doctrines of the Abolitionists. would be to close them to all other subjects, and destroy the usefulness of our paper as a political organ. We look upon the mob at Alton, an we do upon all other mobe, whether Their offer he en hurn a convent, rescuo a run away slave from the hands of the law, destroy the property of a fancted monopolist of pro-- Tar to preform any other act of lawless Projecte With leaf and detestation and sicks ness of heart. We wish all mobis, wherever assembled, and nomatter for what purpose to be put down by the strong arm of the law. We have no "pet mobse" We recognize no authority above that of the laws of the land on any subject. But we see nothing in this affair, that calls for a more particular natice than is to be found in hundreds of other acts of wrong and violence that are continually reported in our newspapers. There are weekly accounts of events as tragical as this, and as near to us. The conduct of the Whites toward their Red brethren, will furnish almost daily instances of wrong and violence as unjust and outragous. We see in this attair nothing but rashness and violence, connected with legal right on the one side and revenge and violence, in opposition to law, on the other, all ending in robbery; burning and murder. Hie investigation and punishment of these crimes belong to the judicial authorities of Himois. With them we would leave the matter, trusting that they will fuithfully discharge their data

While we therefore, control the columns of this paper, it cannot become the medium for controversy upon the subject of slavery.

We publish the two following communication more to show the diversity of sentiment upon the subject, and how interminable and bitter . . . wid be the controversy were we once to enter upon it than for any other purpose. And here we take leave of the subject :

To the Tipe of the Whig & Courier:

It is time that the public mind should be enlightened. It is time that the danverous tendenty of the doctrines and the measures of the abolitionists should be spread far and wide. It is time that other appeals should be made to the people of this land, than those touching their feelings of pity and sentiments of cominjuscration for the situation of the poor enslaved. It is time for the exercise of reflection. It is high time that the mind should acquire and exert its proper and destined control upon the

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier :

I have noticed, with some surprise, that, as get you have not spoken out in your paper, in that full and unequivocal manner! had hoped, upon the subject of the bloody tragedy lately Alton Illinois, There are Limes when to be calm is madness and indifference under such pircimataness as have list trapspired at Alton, will but show the weakness of those principles approad to the immediate emancipation of the stave, and rates up arrows the litherto candid and honest opposers of that apparently impracticable scheme, thousands, of firm, enlightened and decided supparters. 1-am not an Abolitionist, but, if heretofore arguments have been wanting to convince the understanding and convert the heart, the muzder, (for I can salt it by no mitter termi, of the Revit E. P. Lovejoy and the circumstances attending it, liave, at least, led me to ponder and reflect labre seriously, upon the ultimate result of that cause which resorts to mob law to sustain and detend it.

The question is not Abolition or Anti Abolition. It is simply and plainly this does American liberty exist in reality or in NAME ONLY? Why talk about liberty and laws administered by the civil authorities. equal rights Freedom of the Press, &c. &c. when the will of the MOB has become supreme.

Is it possible, that any can be found so indifferent, whatever may be their spinions as to the subject of slavery, as to justify, under any circumstances, such an outrage! Is there any "middle ground' upon which to stand in such a cri sis ? Hauit come to this, that an American citi zen, on Imerican soil, shall be shot dead in the defence of those very rights guaranteed to him by our Constitution, and the blood-stained, heartless ruffians go unpunished? Should it occur that one of them, from whatever cause if may arise, feels folinsell uncomfortable in the house of his owner, the dissatisfied party, refuests his master to dispose of him; and, buving repeated his appeal three several times, the law enforces compliance with its spirit: nor is this all the slave can, not only A. M. insist on changing owners, but even, on relecting his purchaser, although he may by such means entail considerable loss on his master. But, as asseveration is no proof, I will adduce an example.

The wife of Achmet Pasha had a female slave, who, being partial to a young man of the neighborhood, was desirous to become his property. Such being the case she informed her mistress that she wished to be taken to the market and disposed of, which was accordingly carried jirlo effect; but, as she was young an pickly, and her toron in confined circumstatices, ie wae soon out bidden by a wealthier man and, on her return to the barens of Achmet Pa oha, hier mistress told her that an Asiatic merchant had offered twenty thousand plasters for her, and that she would be removed to his house in a few days. "I will not belong to him, was the reply: "there was a young man in the market who bid twelve thousand for me, and I have decided to follow him. My price to you was but ten thousand plasters and thus you will gain two thousand by selling me to him." declaration was decisive; she became the prop erty of her lover, and her resolution cost he

THE PROOF OF THE ALLEGATION THAT THE HON. GORHAM PARKS

When we-last week-published the communication of "1 RUIH," charging Col Parks with entertaining sentiments subversive of the best interests of the community, we did not do it rashly. We had long ago fully determined to let the various reports in circulation in regard to the private character of Gol Parks entirely alone, confining ourself solely to his public acts, af we should feel called on to make any remarks. having a bearing upon his election to the office of Governor But there came forward a gen-Arman of wrimpeachath character, and offered us a communication, the charges in which, if true, were too important to be smothered The _author vouched for the truth of the allegations, and became responsible to us for their accuracy, well knowing, should he fail to substantiate thein, his name would be given to the public Under these execumstances, we could not heartate to by the charge before the public, believing it to be the duty of the conductor of a public press, h - er averse he may be to any thing of a phaenal cl -tacter, to expose the opinions of a candidate for a high and responsible office, provided those opinions are pernicious, dangerous to society, and of a "destroying, revolutionary character ... That we consider the sentiments of Col. Parks of this character need not be said. they bear destruction and "LICENTIOUSNESS" upu(i)_ inface

But to the reason for these present re & Es: The Eastern Republican of Tuesday, sopies entire the article from the Whig & Conrier headed "Is Col Parks a Loco Foco ?" and appends to it a few, but exceedingly pointed ... narks, including a denial of the aliegations, a demand of the proof, and an acknowle edgement that if the charges are proved, the editor will no longer advocate the election of "The Augusta nominee"

[We were about to sweet harail Reports of the Republican, but we see they are included a Dygih in the subjoined article from "I ruth," and therefore it is unnecessary-]

Mos bere is an issue fearly joined, and we an ef nourse omited upon to maintain our assilion, or subject to be "branded as whole-sie "ale villifare and libellers. ' Our correspand at "Fruth" is therefore sgain compelled the him is a riched that he so half of all by me of the whore ob I die fo leu-h would sway heir Lord MA TO SOLD MAN TO THE OF WY W YOU " Wild " specition , but should

In the first place, we have the fact to correbo rate it, that since the discharge of Col Carpenter he has emjoyed the confidence and friendship of Col Parks These men are to this day bosom freends and most frequent companions We have also the convincing fact, that the affidavits represent the conversations, involving the saine principles, as having occurred at two separate and distinct periode' a fact sufficient to es tabuali beyond dispute, in our mind, the opinion that Gorham Parks, now, if he had the power, would repeal the laws against adultery, and reappy i JOSHUA CARPENIER, High Sher ff of Penobscot County Does not this Carpenter, every day honer that he will again be Sheriff within the vear?

But we are extending these remarks to too great length We have met the Republican fairly, we ask the editor of that paper to copy the PROOF or OUR CHARGES, And then say, if he can, that they are not substantiated and that the Hon trochem Parks is not "a levelling destroy. It for you to pass judgement upon ing, revolutionizing, hanny Wright; Loco Fo

To the I dilor of the It hig & Courier

In my communication in the Wing & Cour ier of the 18th inst , I charged upon Col Parks, the Loco Foco candidate for Goverflor, the pos charges plainly und specifically in these words, 'Col Pirka says that the law for the punish ment of the crime of adultery ought to be abol Col Parks stated that Col Carpenter, who was removed from office for this cause, ought not to have been removed, and had he been Governor he never would have removed him

To these charges the Eastern Republican has replied, after publishing my com nunication, in the language following - 🚤 👤

"Slanderers and vile calumniatore are gener ally the most severely rebuked by a dignified silence But here are serious charges against a prominent and distingen whed individual in a jangible farm which it is boasted can be prored and as we believe the allegations are either en tirely or in the main untrue, not susceptible of proof, but made from motives of malice or for political effect and for once and for all to test their boasts, we now call upon the White & Courier to produce the proof to substairtrate its lers Investigation is challenged; we sav let it proceed, and having denied a belief of the truth of the allegations let us have the evidence to support them Give us the proof to support article, or let those that make them, take the equivocations, quibbles, or irrevelent testimony

prove that 'Gorham Parks is a I FVEILING, PETROYING, REVOLUTIONIZING, FANNI Which T Luco Foco that he approves of it CENTINUSTESS, (for this is the idea conveyed,) and that he said if Governor he would not turn a man out of office, if convicted of the crime of adultry Prove these charges and no will not Augusta nominee

The issue then is fairly offered on the part of the Republican, which we as fairly join. We ter, at the manner in which said departments affirm the truth of the charges made they are or their bureaus or offices, or agents of every our country, the people, and ask them to return a verdict "according to the evidence given "Wemany too, let the people have the proof 'wo sup port each and every charge contained in the abook article, or let those who make them, take the name then clearly stated, ARF THESP CHARGES proper TRUE - On this ground we place the issue If they are not true, let Col Parks reputation come out purer and fairer from the ordeal, or let the frown of an indignant people, visit upon the heads of the adulterer or his advocates, the punishment which is their due

Welay our proof before the jury of our coun

AFFIDAVITS

I, A G Wakefield do testify and say that a short time before the Hon Gorham Parks was nominated as a candidate for Governor of this State, I went into the Store of Smith and Fen no, there were several gentlemen in the store, and among them was Col Parks l entered the store, either Mr McCrillis or Col Parks, and which of them, I cannot say, com menced a conversation in relation to the character of Col Carpenter, the late Sheriff of Penob Col Parks took the lead in the conver scot sation in defence and support of Col. Carpen ters character He said that Col Carpenter was an inonorable and high minded man, that he never would have been prosecuted, if he had not have had an office that those who prosecu ted have were actuated by the basest of motives, and that the law against the crime of adultery ought to be repealed

COL PARKS AGAINST THE PEOPLE SUPPRESSION OF INQUIRY BY THE -INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE

It was evident from many things that occured, that the proceedings of Mr Wise were pesession and maintainance of principles, which if cultarly annoying to the administration, hence deputies, who have, since the 4th March, 1820, true, would render him unfit for the office of the abuse heaped open him, and the endeavors to the lat of December last, within the depart olitef mogistrate of this State I made these of the party to put him down. But these alone ments, respectively, received salaries, pay or were insufficient, the old President is brought out in desence of the Departments, in his next coived salaries &c , without being in onice and last annual incoorge, where he holds the whose commissions have been antedated, who following tanguage

"Before contluding this paper, I think it due to the various Executive Departments to bear private employment whilst receiving pay from testimony of their prosperous condition, and to and rendering no service to the Government of the ability and integrity with which they have the United States, with it e names of such offi been conducted. It has been my aim to enforce cers, or agents, or deputies, the sums or sabarics in all of them, a vigilant and faithful dischirge of the public business, and it is gratifying to me to believe that there is no just cause of com plant, hour any quarter, at the manner in which they have furthed the object of their CLERITOR

But Mr Wise was not to be deterred from the sooner does Congress sommence business than propriety of adopting these resolutions Mr

ry The party were now all committed upon that the resolutions might pass with certain-athe honesty and integrity of the several depart. mendments which he was prepared to off-r He ments, and no excuse could possibly be made for had seen those most interested, and matters had charges, or the editor and his correspondents ments, and no excuse could possibly be made for nad seen those most interested, and matters had will be branded as wholesale villifiers and tibel refusal to pass the Resolution accordingly it oven satisfactorily adjusted what these affects passed on the seventeenth of Jan'y, in the words

"Resolved. That so much of the President's each and every charge contained in the above | message as relates to the condition of the va rious Executive Departments, the ability and l name of libellers and lears No beating about, into grity with which they have been conducted the vigilant and faithful discharge of the public business in all of them, and the causes of com plaint, from any quarter, at the manner in which they have tulbiled the objects of their creation be referred to a select committee of nine menibers, with power to send for persons and papers. and with instructions to inquire into the condition of the various Executive Departments, the say another word in favor of the election of the ability and integrity with which they have been conducted, into the manner in which the public business has been discharged in all of them, and into all the causes of complaint, from any quar denied We lay our case before the jury of nected with them in any manner, officially or unofficially, in duties pertaining to the public interest, have fulfilled or failed to accomplish the objects of their creation, or have violated their duties or have injured and impaired the public service and interest, and that said comonttee, in its inquiries may refer to such periods of libellers and liars ' The point in issue is of time as to their may seem expedient and

Under this resolution, an appointment of the Committee devolved upon the Speaker, a mandevoted every way to the Administration. What should have been his object in its selection? Are office holders the masters or the ser vants of the people? If they are the servants of the people, should their proceedings be known to the people, 71s it the duty of Congress to with out of sight, or erpose abuses? Are mem bers of Congress bound by an oath to do their duty faithfully and impartially? Is the conceal. ment of knavery, to the injury of the people, for the protection of the interests of a party, living up to this oath? If so, then the speaker performed his duty in the selection of a packed, politically, profligate majority, upon whom the Department, and the President could fely for Speakers object in the appointment of that committee? He should have been anxious to arrive at truth, whether for or against the integ rity of the several departments. He should have been liberal in his selection But no The resolution was doubtless permitted to pass only with the provine that the flammittee should be of the right sort : from whom no danger was to be apprehended Accordingly Mr Wise was na med as Chairman, and allowed two Whigs as support, Messys L Lincoln and Campbell, while of Van Darda 'den Me-As. Parks, Pierce, Mahlenburg, Hannegan, Mann, and Chaney, tions; which prevailed as follows were set opposite them, to manage the affair in their own way, and vote as INADMISSABLE, all impertenent inquiries!
